ABSTRACT:

Hilary Mantel's Wolf Hall published in 2009 is a remarkable Booker prize Winner novel that takes us back to the good old days of Oliver Cromwell and his times. Writing about a historical incident of the past involves a careful and honest representation of the incidents that are recorded in the history books. However, there are a lot of cultural and linguistic elements that are also narrated from modern day viewpoint. This paper comments upon such cultural, linguistic and historical material and its honest description that succeeds in entertaining the readers and helping them in the creation of virtual historical reality.
