

Epitome : International Journal of Multidisciplinary Research

ISSN : 2395-6968

DISPLACEMENT AND LANDLESS FAMILIES : A SPECIAL REFERENCE OF JAYAKWADI HYDRO POWER PROJECT

Dr. Balasaheb V. Bodhane

Asst. Prof. Dept. of SCPA, Gopinathrao Munde National Institute of Rural Development and Research.
Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad.
Email: balavbodhane@gmail.com

Abstract :

The purpose of this paper is to understand the relation between displacement and new landless families. Development, displacement and rehabilitation are co-related concepts also processes. The present paper pure related of displaced peoples under the Jayakwadi hydro power project in Aurangabad district, Maharashtra. Two districts and included four blocks are affected under the project. Researcher have selected 300 affected families under the project, also find the impact of this project on displaced peoples and his land available and landless families. Aurangabad district have selected for this study, included Paithan and Gangapur blocks. Total no. of 15400 families and 77000 people and Total no. of 33268 hectors land have acquired through government for Jayakwadi project. Total no. of 300 samples like affected families are selected for this study, also addressed on his problems of landless.

Keywords : Development, Displacement, Rehabilitation, Land owner, Landless Families.